WORDPLAY!

30-45 min

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION

In this workshop we'll explore creative expression through voice and movement. A fun interactive time of playful word games and exercises to empower the progressive practice of poetically painting perspectives for inner peace, global hilarity and intercommunication!

Expect the unexpected!

All ages, all abilities welcome.

EXPERIENCE

Rain has traveled the world to help global and diverse communities with local service projects. Most recently performing poetry at an International conference of Women Peacemakers in the Hague as a Poet and Delegate with Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF). She volunteers in her own community singing with a community choir: Pura Vida!, hosting the 'Outer Limits Radio Show' on Missoula's KBGA college radio, shares poetry alongside the resonant power of mantra and harmony with Cami Cote in monthly Kirtan, facilitates poetic creative writing, as well as community conversations about such topics as poverty and indigenous wisdom; she is fulfilled by sharing time with elders and youth.

She has been a resident of Missoula Montana since 2010 - the same year she performed in her 1st Poetry Slam. Missoula has renewed her passion for poetry and vocal expression, allowing her to pursue mentorship with an original beat: Diamond Dave Whitaker in San Francisco and perform her poetry as an international peacemaker!

Rain is a community uplifted poet and genuinely trusts that when we learn to express ourselves for ourselves, we are more confident and better able to share our perspectives, values and feelings with our greater communities. The present and future can only benefit from deeper, more meaningful, more creative communication and more playfulness!

ACCOLADES

Attended and performed poetry for the 'Women's Power to Stop War' International Peace Conference, honoring the 100 year anniversary of women organizing efforts to end war, April 2015.
